

Curriculum Vitae

Surname: EHRENPREIS

First name: DAG

I. EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

1. May 2009—Present

The Nordic Africa Institute, Uppsala (NAI)

Coordinating Editor: Policy Notes and Nordic Development Policy Blog.

1 November 2009- 31 August 2012: NAI Associate/Senior Expert

2. March 2008—May 2009

Semi-retirement, independent consultant, e.g. editor of UNDP/IPC's quarterly review Poverty in Focus thematic issue "Jobs, Jobs, Jobs—the Policy Challenge", November 2008.

3. March 2006—February 2008

UNDP/ International Poverty Centre (IPC), Brasilia

Specialist/Policy Advisor; editor of Poverty in Focus, and associate editor of other IPC publications such as One-pagers, Policy Research Briefs, Working Papers and Country Studies. See <http://www.undp.org/povertycentre>

4. July 2003—February 2006

Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency, Sida

July 2003 - March 2004: Senior Advisor on Poverty Reduction, Management training in Sida's Perspectives on Poverty guidelines, Member of OECD/DAC/POVNET

April 2004 - February 2006: Senior Advisor, Multilateral Division; OECD/DAC, IMF and World Bank policy and co-financing manager.

5. February 1999 – June 2003

OECD, Development Cooperation Directorate (DCD)

Senior Advisor on Poverty Reduction.

Major tasks:

- Advise and support the DAC Network on Poverty Reduction (POVNET), producing the DAC Guidelines on Poverty Reduction and its Policy Statement, both approved by the DAC High Level Meeting in 2001, and the DAC Poverty and Health guidance published in 2002.
- Advise and support the Peer Review Division in assessing DAC Member performance with respect to the implementation of the poverty guidelines.
- Advise and support DCD work on policy coherence for development, aid effectiveness and aid allocation principles with respect to achieving the Millennium Development Goals.
- Outreach and contacts with the international development and research community and with other civil society organisations involved in work related to poverty reduction, including participation in participating in a network on Bridging Research and Policy, linked to the Global Development Network.
- Institutional capacity building for poverty reduction.

6. June 1993 – January 1999

Swedish International Development Cooperation Agency, Sida

Chief Economist; from June 1997 also Division Chief, Economic and Social Analysis, in the Dept. for Policy and Corporate Development (from October 1998 renamed Secretariat for Policy, Economic and Social Analysis).

7. March 1990 – May 1993

Swedish International Development Authority, SIDA

Development Counselor and Head of Development Cooperation Office, Embassy of Sweden, Luanda, Angola

8. June 1966 – August 1966, January 1971 – February 1990

Swedish International Development Authority, SIDA

A series of career posts involving economic and policy analysis as well as management and operations, including 7 years in the field in Africa (Tanzania, Mozambique, Zimbabwe and Angola), Head of the Planning Secretariat, Head of Section in the Country Programming Division, and Head of the Regional Secretariat for Southern Africa.

9. November 1969 – December 1970

AB Rabén & Sjögren Publishing House, Stockholm

Editor of economics and development textbooks and other literature.

II. EDUCATION

a) Highest Pre-University Level Achieved

June 1962 Norra Latin, Stockholm Matriculation examination

b) University:

June 1969 University of California, Berkeley: M.A., Economics
(Economic Development and National Economic Planning)

June 1967 Stockholm School of Economics Civilekonom (B.A.+)

LINGUISTIC ABILITY:

Mother tongue: Swedish

Other languages: (very good, good, fair)

	speaking	writing	reading	translating
English	very good	very good	very good	very good
French	good	fair	good	fair
Portuguese	good	fair	good	fair
Spanish	fair	fair	good	fair
German	(fair)	(fair)	(fair)	(fair)

III. PUBLICATIONS

✚ Poverty—What it is and what to do about it. Ideas and policies in the international community and in Swedish development cooperation in B. Odén & L. Wohlgemuth (Eds.): Where is Swedish aid heading? (Gothenburg University, 2009).

✚ Poverty in Focus, IPC Quarterly Review, thematic issues on
- Jobs, Jobs, Jobs—the Policy challenge, November 2008
- P(S)IA: Gauging Poverty Impact, April 2008
- Gender Equality, January 2008
- Does Aid Work—for the MDGs?, October 2007
- The Challenge of Inequality, June 2007
- Analysing and Achieving Pro-Poor Growth, March 2007
- What is Poverty? Concepts and measures, December 2006

- Social protection—the role of cash transfers, June 2006

- ✚ Growth, Poverty and Inequality in Mozambique, IPC Country Study No. 10, 2007, co-author with Pekka Virtanen, University of Tampere.
- ✚ Good Health – A cornerstone of development, OECD Observer No. 237, May 2003, ISSN 0029-7054; (with Jean Lennox).
- ✚ The Changing Global Framework in Development Cooperation in the 21st Century, Project 2015, Sida, Stockholm 1997 (ISBN 91-586-7544-2).
- ✚ Towards Effective Aid Management, in Aid Management, Strategies for Effectiveness, Concentration and Graduation, Project 2015, Sida, Stockholm 1997; ISBN 91-586-7496-9 (co-author with Lars Johansson)
- ✚ Poverty Reduction in Swedish Assistance: Policy and Practice; Working Paper 6, SIDA Task Force on Poverty Reduction, Stockholm 1996; ISBN 91-586-7329-6.
- ✚ Measures for the Reduction of Poverty. The Role of the State and the Market in Addressing Inequality and Growth; in U. Kirdar & L. Silk: People: From Impoverishment to Empowerment, UNDP/New York University Press, 1995. (co-author with Carl Tham).